

Our two-week intensive drama workshop will take place
Monday through Friday
August 15 - 26, 2005
10 am - 4 pm

Showcase of student work
Friday, August 26, 7:30 pm
Family, friends and community are invited to the performance

Workshop and performance location:
Daybreak Star
Indian Cultural Center,
Discovery Park, Magnolia, Seattle

If you are able to attend for only a portion of the summer program, or if there are any other special circumstances you would like us to know, please explain below:

For more information, please call
Martha Brice or Sweetwater Nannauck
at 206/323-1868 or e-mail us at resoaring@earthlink.net
and see our web site at <http://home.earthlink.net/~resoaring>

Red Eagle Soaring is a 501(c)(3) non-profit Native American/Alaskan Native Theatre Group whose mission is to produce traditional and contemporary Native American theatre arts and whose highest priority is to serve Native American and Alaskan Native youth.

Red Eagle Soaring
P.O. Box 22378
Seattle, WA
98122-0378

Red Eagle Soaring
Native American Theatre Group
Youth Theatre Program
presents

S.I.Y.A.P.*

Seattle Indian Youth Arts and Performance

Summer, 2005

Two Week Intensive Drama Workshop
Monday - Friday, August 15 - 19 and
August 22 - 26, 10AM to 4 PM daily

Student Performance

Friday, August 26, 7:30 PM

Daybreak Star Indian Cultural Center
Discovery Park, Seattle, Washington

Siyap means "friend"*
in Eastern Puget Sound Lushootseed,
the language of Puget Sound's First People

During the workshop you will have the opportunity to learn

theatre games and warm-ups,
 acting, storytelling, playwriting
 traditional drumming, singing, dance,
 rehearsal and performance of a production,
 preparation of a resume and headshot,
 painting of backdrops for the show,
 how to do publicity, life skills,
 appreciation of Native culture
 and of the art of theatre...
 and much more!

All participants in the two-week intensive workshop will be invited to perform before a live audience, the evening of August 26th.

The Teaching Artists:

Deborah Parker, Tulalip/Apache, Curtis Ahenakew, Cree, and other professional and traditional teaching artists

We are looking for Native Youth, ages 13-19, who are interested in any or all areas of theatre, including technical aspects (lights/sound) and visual arts.

(Ages 11-12 with experience are welcome)

We look forward to having you join our two week intensive workshop.

New students especially welcome
Workshops are free!
Lunch will be provided
and transportation may be available

Reserve your spot now!

Fill out and mail this form to Red Eagle Soaring
 P.O. Box 22378
 Seattle, WA 98122-0378

Or fax the form to: 206-726-6564
 or e-mail redsoaring@earthlink.net
 or call 206-323-1868

Red Eagle Soaring's programs for Youth are presented in the context of Native American culture and values, and are alcohol-, drug- and smoking-free.

Our sincere thanks to the City of Seattle, Human Services Department, the Seattle Indian Health Board, the American Indian Women's Service League, the Potlatch Fund, and our many individual donors and volunteers for helping to make this program possible.

S.I.Y.A.P. 2005 Registration Form

Name(s): _____

Tribe(s): _____ Age: _____

Parent/Guardian: _____

Address: _____

Phone # _____

Emergency # _____

e-mail _____

How much do these arts interest you?
(Mark the boxes):	lots	less	not
Acting
Drawing/ Painting
Writing
Tech (Lights/ sound)
Music
Traditional drum, dance, etc.
Other:
Do you sing?
Play instruments?
What instruments?

To the parents: How can you help?

Carpool? Yes No

Bring food? Yes No

Volunteer during workshop? Yes No

Fundraising activities? Yes No

(over)